THE HOMESTEAD LAW—IMPOR-

TANT DECISION.

The Supreme Court has declared the Homestead Law valid and retrospective in its action—that is, good against old debts. Thus this mooted question is put to rest, and our people may proceed to have their homes made law. This decision gives the sanction of the Supreme Court to the repudiation of almost two-thirds of the indebtedness of the State. While it deprives many creditors of their rights, it secures to the poor a home from which no legal process can eject him.

SEGREGATION.

The Supreme Court has just decided "going home" reads delivering the opinion that marriages between the white and negro races are unlawful. It is strange that a case should occur in which the Court would be called upon to decide, but such is the depravity of certain classes that they must go on. And it is right that the law on the subject should be enforced, and for a violation of it the guilty parties should be made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law.

It is strange to read whole columns in the Standard written to prove that the Republicans are the only true Conservatives, and that that party is the only representative of the old Whig and Democratic parties. There is not a single man in the State that can be called by any such statements however ingeniously made. There is not a Radical in the State who honestly believes he is still acting up to the principles of the great Whig leader, or following in the footsteps of old Hickory.

These articles may do to show the weakness of the writer, but they will never deceive any one. Holden a Jackson Democrat, and Rufus a Whig? "Going home" reads true to the principles of the great "Commoner," and Gov. Graham, Z. B. Vance, and others are as true to them. That may do to tell to the lumber-men on the Kennebec and to the ignorant cornfield negroes, but not to native North Carolinians. It is true the old Whig and Democratic parties, as organizations, are dead; but the great principles upon which they always acted and fought for are immortal, and every true man in the South stands by them to-day. And when there is another election in this State, the carpet buggers will find upon what a frail tenure they hold their positions.

COURT HAS FINI

Our Sentinel did not reach us yesterday, but the Standard says the opinion was not given in the University Railroad case, but was expected to be delivered on the 20th. It says, "Of course the Court has given no intimation of what the decision will be." The Sentinel, of the 19th, positively asserted that the opinion had been given, and that adverse to the constitutionality of the appropriation. Now what are we to understand by this? Has the Sentinel been imposed upon? or has the Court again reconsidered the case? It is time this uncertainty was removed. The motives which influence the Court in so grave a matter are liable to misconception. We trust "the veil will be lifted," as the immortal S. N. would say, and that our best Raleigh papers will bring us the much desired decision.

George H. Venable, one of the Editors of the Petersburg Index, died of Consumption on Sunday morning last. He was a gentleman of education, of more than ordinary promise, and his death is quite a loss to Journalism.

We see from the Salisbury Enquirer that an inquest was held on the body of an infant, when facts were elicited which proved that the mother had been too intimate with her own father; and that he, failing to induce her to swear the child to another negro, had kicked and pushed her until premature birth was produced. The babe was rescued, and the mother has not yet been captured.

The negroes are fast, under Yankee and scolding tuition, relapsing into barbarism. Such a case as this was never heard of before the Yankee school-marks, carpet-buggers and thieves came down to teach their "down-east" morals and manners.

SUPREME COURT—Monday, July 19, 1869. All the business was present. The following cases were argued:

In Glenn vs. Charlotte and S. C. R. R. Co., from Guilford county, judgment affirmed.

In Vance vs. Sumner, from Rowan county (two cases) and in Avery vs. Hutchinson (three cases), from Rowan county. Judgment affirmed.

By Reade, J. In State vs. Haireton; from Forsythe county. Judgment affirmed, intermarriage between the white and colored races declared unlawful.

In State vs. Rhinehardt; from Lincoln county. Judgment reversed.

In Hill vs. Kesler; from Rowan county. Homestead law declared valid and retrospective in its action—valid as to old debts. Chief Justice Pearson dissenting.

In Young vs. McLean; from Mecklenburg county. Judgment affirmed. The following additional rule of practice was adopted:

RULE XXI. Writs of execution issued from a Superior Court shall not be tested of any term; they shall be dated on the day of their issue; and shall state when the judgment was docketed in the county from the Court of which the execution issues.

Help Wanted. Our office is over daily by applicants who wish to be put in the way of self support. To a great extent they are honest in their search, but they deceive themselves in the belief that they are willing to undertake whatever shall be most for their advantage. They all have a preference which they are not willing to yield to the judgment of those they consult, or even to the plainest arguments, which they find themselves totally unable to answer.

They all, without exception, wish like Mr. Shelton's son Gershon, to "get their living by their wits"; and although some of them, unlike him, are not so sure to "fail for want of capital" of that sort, they will, nevertheless, succumb upon the first trial, either for that reason or because the market for even the genuine article is overstocked. Clerks of all kinds, agents, brokers, accountants, bookkeepers, collectors, reporters, paragraph or story writers, authors, poets, druggists, and even light porters to run off errands—are all too plenty and the business overdone. For almost every man now engaged in any of these occupations, a duplicate, if not triplicate stands idly gaping to be employed in the same line.

Physical service is at a discount. A man too dumb to write or peddle matches for a living may accept a place to take care of horses or work on a farm; but most young men would stand idle a long time before they would roll up their sleeves for thirty work in what they consider a menial occupation.

But if mere handwork requiring little intelligence is distasteful, surely the call for skilled labor need not be frightened from that quarter. We never go so great as now. First class mechanics among us now average three to five dollars per day, and the demand for intelligent, capable workmen is constantly increasing. A father of a family would do better by his son to give him a trade than to start him in business with a capital of ten thousand dollars as a free gift. The boy would be likely to lose the money; he could not be deprived of the trade. And here the wit and intelligence which go for so much in the more professions will count for even more to their possessor. The standard is annually deteriorating in almost every trade, because the smartest boys feel above the call of manual labor. For this very reason the inducement to those of superior intelligence is becoming greater every year. The road to independence is shorter by this route than by any other open to the foot of aspiring youth. And in all the future there is no prospect where intelligence and skill can be turned to good account. This will serve to answer, besides all personal applicants, a number of letters now lying open before us. —N. Y. Jour. of Com.

In answer to the question, at what point does republican government commence, and where does it end? the editor of the New York Tribune replies: "We understand that republican government commences when the poor establish it and ends where they have overthrown it."

The Radical press of Virginia call colored men "niggers" since the election.

STATE NEWS.

BURGLARIES—THREE HOUSES ENTERED.—Burglars were again abroad on Sunday night and their operations were somewhat extended, though the plunder they secured was slight.

Between three and four o'clock, a burglar entered the house of Mr. D. H. Baker, on Broad street, by a window on the second floor. How long he remained is unknown, as none of the family were disturbed, but apparently he left at leisure. After inspecting the contents of Mr. Whitaker's bed-room and abstracting four or five dollars from the pocket of his pantaloons, the rascal coolly raised another window and walked into the neighboring yard of Mr. A. G. Eubank.

Mr. Eubank's house was entered in a manner similar to that in which the entrance was effected into Mr. Whitaker's—by raising a window on the lower floor. Here the burglar was heard moving about by Mr. Eubank's niece, who gave the alarm, but did not succeed in rousing any of the household. She succeeded, however, in frightening the burglar, who left the house without disturbing its contents.

The house of Mr. Keebler in the same neighborhood was also entered by a window. Here the thieves contented themselves with taking a musquito net from a bed and carried it into the backyard, where it was found yesterday morning. They decamped without alarming any of the family.

An attempt was also made on the house of Mr. Moses Patterson, but a servant girl gave the alarm before an entrance was effected and the would-be robber ran off.

The first three houses entered were within less than one hundred yards of the police station when several officers were on duty. —Journal of Commerce.

MELANCHOLY CASE OF DROWNING.—Mr. Philip E. Yeath, son of Gen. J. M. Leach, of Lexington, Davidson county, N. C., was drowned by drowning, at Topsail Sound last Saturday afternoon. —State of N. C. Record.

ARREST OF A NOTORIOUS CHARACTER.—Yesterday, a white man named Garner Dudley was arrested on a warrant for horse-stealing issued by Justice Rifeord, examined and committed to jail. —Journal.

On Wednesday last two freedmen, Ross Miller and Mike Hamilton, engaged in a little affair of honor outside the corporate limits, in which Ross came off second best, receiving the point of his adversary's lance, (a scythe blade) and a very serious wound. All quiet along the Potomac. —Indicador.

CROPS INJURED.—We regret to hear that the corn along the line of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad is literally decayed by the drought—dried up and completely withered. The crop on some plantations is accounted completely lost. —Wilmington Journal.

AGE OF THE EARTH.—Among the astounding discoveries of science is that of the immense periods that have passed in the gradual formation of the earth. So vast were the cycles of the time preceding even the appearance of man on the surface of our globe that our period seems as yesterday when compared with the epochs that have gone before it. Had we only the knowledge of the deposits of rocks shaped on earth after its regular strata by the slow accumulation of materials, they alone would convince us of the long and slow maturing of God's work on earth; but when we add to these the successive population of whose life the world has been the theatre, and whose remains are hidden in the rocks into which the mud, or sand, or silt of whatever kind on which they lived, has hardened in the course of time, or the enormous chains of mountains whose upheaval divided these periods of quiet accumulation by great convulsions—or the changes of a different nature in the configuration of our globe, as the sinking of lands beneath the ocean, or the gradual rising of continents and islands above—or the slow growth of the coral reefs, those wonderful seawalks raised by the little coral architects, whose bodies furnish both the building stones and the cement that binds them together, and who worked so busily during the long centuries that there are extensive countries, mountain chains, islands, and long lines of coast, consisting solely of their remains; or the countless forests that have grown up, flourished, and decayed, to fill the storehouse of coal that feeds the fire of the human race. If we consider all these records of the past, the intellect fails to grasp a chronology of which our experience furnishes no data, and time that lies behind us seems as much an eternity to our conception as the future that stretches indefinitely before us. —Agassiz.

A man who lately sued a lady for breach of promise was offered two hundred dollars to settle. "What," he cried, "two hundred dollars for ruined hopes, a shattered mind, a blasted life, and a bleeding heart! Two hundred dollars for all this! Never, never! Make it three, and it's a bargain." —N. Y. Jour. of Com.

The Founders planless propose to let the negroes attend the Conventions and hire Chinamen to work.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Communicated by the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, July 19.

The Radical extremists are sorely puzzled. How to counteract the strong influences of the Virginia election on the other contests now engaging the public attention is a subject that causes them no little apprehension, while another is the master in which to go to work without too glaring a show of party impropriety in order to defeat before Congress the legitimate results of (to them) so startling a Conservative victory in a State which, to many of the sanguine Radicals, has been of late regarded as less a stronghold than Vermont or Massachusetts.

It is perhaps somewhat significant that on the first point the leading representative men of their party have hesitated to approach the President, contenting themselves with the assurances of Mr. Boutwell and one or two others belonging to the Cabinet, though not all of these officials, that the Government patronage and authority would be directed in favor of the ultra Republican tickets in Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas, ignoring Conservative Republicans altogether. Of course the same policy will be pursued with reference to the elections of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

From a close observance of the official conduct of the President himself with reference to the distribution of the patronage of the Government in the past I can find no reason to induce the slightest impression that he will take any direct action bearing upon the campaigns in the three southern and two northern State elections now so prominent in the public mind. His policy regarding appointments has been, excepting in particular cases, to leave such matters to the heads of the departments under whom they belong.

Grant will hold himself aloof in the coming contests. Whatever efforts are made to secure the onward march of Conservative success throughout the entire country will be without any substantial aid from the President.

LATEST NEWS.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—

Revealed receipts to-day—nearly hundred thousand.

A large amount of tobacco stamps, intended for the revenue officers for use in the West, were destroyed by the Erie Railroad disaster.

The Treasury commenced to issue 15 cent currency to-day.

New York, July 19.—The International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, at Portland, Maine, closed its session Saturday.

A movement towards educating colored clergymen to preach to the colored people in the South was inaugurated, and a large amount subscribed to further it on the spot.

It is reported that a new Cuban camp has been established at West Hoboken, N. J., said to be two hundred of the men in the Gardner's Island expedition there, who succeeded in eluding the United States Marshal.

A sugar dealer in Jersey City was arrested to-day, on the charge of counterfeiting. It is said that one hundred dollar counterfeit bill was found in his possession when arrested. He was held to bail.

The Cuban filibusters who were arrested at Gardiner's Island have not been released as stated. They are confined at Fort Lafayette.

Eight of the Bankers arrested on the charge of usury were arraigned in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day. Three plead guilty. The Judge announced that he would not sentence them after the trial of the others.

Wilmington, July 19.—Julian J. Leach, son of Hon. James M. Leach, was drowned at Topsail Sound, while bathing in the surf on Saturday last. The Republican party in this city is divided into two formidable factions. Each wing has a candidate in the field to fill the vacancy in the Legislature, occasioned by the resignation of General L. G. Estes. The contest will be the most bitter known in the history of this county. One of the most prominent leaders of one faction in a speech to-day, predicted a blood-bath before the campaign is over.

It is entirely a family quarrel in which Conservatives and Democrats take no part and will run no candidates. The more extreme faction led by George Z. Erner and other Northern whites, nominated a negro candidate. The other faction, composed almost entirely of negroes, nominated a white candidate. It is found necessary to station a strong police force at all the meetings held in this city. The most bitter personalities are indulged in by many of the speakers, and several slight collisions have already occurred.

St. Louis, July 19.—Omaha reports say General Carr's recent Indian victory was more complete than at first stated. Four hundred horses and mules, a large quantity of powder, five tons of dried buffalo and nine hundred dollars of captured money was given to Mr. Weitzel, a white woman who was recaptured. This was the body of Indians that fought last year.

A dispatch to the Herald from Montana says Eastman and another man were attacked and wounded recently a few miles from Fort Benton. The Indians in retaliation killed three soldiers who were in town.

London, July 19.—The first general meeting of the Women's Franchise Society was held yesterday. Among the nobles present were the Junior Lord of the Treasury, Henry Fawcett, member of Parliament for Brighton; J. Stuart Mill, Lord Houghton, Rt. Hon. James Stansfield, Rev. Chas. Kingsley, author, and Louis Blanc, author. There were many ladies present. Addresses were delivered by many well known speakers and a resolution was unanimously adopted favoring female suffrage.

Paris, July 19.—Marshall Villiot has been reappointed Minister of Imperial household.

The press of this city regard the new Cabinet as one of transition only.

A kind physician, living near Boston, wishing to smooth the last hours of a poor woman whom he was attending, asked her if there was anything he could do for her before she died. The poor soul, looking up, replied: "Doctor, I have always thought that I should like to have a glass, butter-dish, before I died."

HARD UPON THE DOCTORS.—A little four-year old boy was looking out of a window in his father's house yesterday, when a noted doctor rode rapidly by. The knowing little fellow called out to his mother, "Ma, somebody is going to die." "Why so, sonnie?" "Because, mam, Doctor says too much to be raised." —Lynchburg News.

A son of Brigham Young tried to steal an actress at Salt Lake and failed, and followed her to San Francisco with no better success.

A band of wandering gipsies in the State of Delaware have been detected in attempts to kidnap handsome young girls. The object is supposed to be ransom.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The World Grows Wiser.

The human stomach has been a shamefully persecuted organ. There was a time when for every direction of duty it was punished with huge doses of the most disgusting and nauseous drugs. In vain it rejected them, and (frequently) returned them upon the heads of those who administered them. They were forced upon it again and again, until its inherent power was thoroughly drained out of it.

The world is wiser now than it was in that drastic era, when furious purgation and mercurialization were what Attends Ward would have called the "main ho" of the faculty in cases of dyspepsia and liver complaint.

The great modern remedy for indigestion and biliousness is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a preparation which has the merit of combining a palatable flavor with such tonic, aperient, and antibilious properties as were never heretofore united in any medicine.

It has been discovered, at last, that sick people are not like the faired Titans, who could prostration to refreshing that, when knocked down, they rose from the earth twice as vigorous as before. When an invalid is prostrated by powerful debilitating drugs, he is apt to stay prostrated, and the debilitated being aware of the fact, prefer the building up to the knocking down system of treatment.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS meets the requirements of the rational medical philosophy, which, at present, prevails. It is a perfectly pure vegetable remedy, embracing the most improved properties of a purgative, a tonic, and an alterative. It fortifies the weakened system, invigorates and re-vitalizes the torpid stomach and liver, and effects a most salutary change in the entire system, when in a morbid condition.

In summer, when the entering temperature renders the human organism particularly susceptible to malarious and atmospheric influences, the Bitters should be taken as a protection against epidemic disease.

MADE IN KANSAS, APRIL 17, 1869. Messrs. FARRIS, DAVIS & SON, Gentlemen:—I want to say a few words about the Pain Killer. I consider it a very valuable medicine, and always keep it on hand. I have traveled a good deal since I have been in Kansas, and never without taking it with me. In my practice I used it freely for the Asiatic Cholera in 1849, and with better success than any other medicine. I also used it for Cholera in 1855, with the same good results.

I regret to say that the Cholera has prevailed here of late to a fearful extent. For the last three weeks, from ten to fifty or sixty fatal cases each day have been reported. I should and that the Pain Killer sent recently from the Mission House, has been used with considerable success during this epidemic. It ranks in season, it is generally effectual in checking the disease.
